Overview:

This guide will show you how to implement 'Subscription modes' with the forum activity.

What to know:

The 'Subscription mode' setting within the settings section allows the teacher to adjust the means by which notifications are received by students about forum post. This is a setting that should be noted when setting up your forum.

Step 1: The Forum Settings page

Once you are on the settings page of your forum activity you'll see various settings. Please go down to 'Subscription and tracking', and then click on it. You will then be introduced to the Subscription options.

The screenshot shows the 'Test forum' settings page with the following details:

- Header: Forum icon, 'Test forum'.
- Menu: Forum, Settings (highlighted in red), Advanced grading, Subscriptions, Reports, More.
- Section: Updating: Forum (with a 'Expand all' link).
- Section: General (with a 'General' link).
- Form fields:
 - Forum name: 'Test forum' (with a red exclamation mark icon).
 - Description: Rich text editor with various icons for bold, italic, underline, etc.

Step 3: Deciding on the Modes

The subscription modes can dictate how students view posts on the forum. The modes are as follows:

Subscription mode ?

Optional subscription - Participants can choose whether to be subscribed

Read tracking ?

Forced subscription - Everyone is subscribed and cannot unsubscribe

✓ Optional subscription
Forced subscription
Auto subscription
Subscription disabled

Auto subscription - Everyone is subscribed initially but can choose to unsubscribe at any time

Subscription disabled - Subscriptions are not allowed.

NB:

Forcing everyone to subscribe is especially useful in the news forum and in forums towards the beginning of the course (before everyone has worked out that they can subscribe to these emails themselves).

Changing the setting from "Yes, initially" to "No" will not unsubscribe existing users, it will only affect those who enroll in the course in the future. Similarly changing "No" to "Yes, initially" will not subscribe existing course users but only those enrolling later.

There is also a "Subscriptions not allowed" setting which prevents Students from subscribing to a Forum. Teachers may choose to subscribe to a forum if they wish.
