

Quiz - Separate questions in sections

The screenshot shows a quiz editor interface with two sections. Section one is titled 'Section one' and contains two questions: a 'Choice question example' and a 'Numerical question'. Section two is titled 'Section two' and contains two questions: a 'True/False question' and a 'Short answer question'. Each question has a score of 25.00 and a 'Always latest' dropdown menu. The interface also includes 'Add' and 'Shuffle' options for each section.

An example of questions separated in sections

Overview:

This guide will show you how to separate questions into sections within the Quiz activity.

What to know:

Separating questions into sections will allow you to display different headings within the Quiz activity and apply different shuffling options in different sections. For example, you can set the questions in Section 1 to be shuffled and Section 2 not to be shuffled.
